

MRS. JAMES HEAD

An Aged and Respected Lady of This City, Dies After Lingering Sickness

FROM AN INCURABLE DISEASE.

Mrs. Mary Head, wife of Jas. Head, a well known citizen of this place, died Saturday at the family residence on R. R. street. Mrs. Head had long been a sufferer from cancer of the stomach and although everything possible that a skillful physician assisted by a loving husband and a host of friends could do for her was done to effect a cure it was of no avail. It was known for several months she could not recover and death came as a kind relief to her intense suffering. She was a member of the Christian church here and a noble Christian woman loved and respected by all who knew her.

Besides her husband she leaves three brothers, Joseph, Varian and John Davis, and two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Wise and Mrs. Nroes, of this place, to regret her loss. The deceased was 61 years old and had been married 39 years. The funeral took place at Grapevine church Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Henry Moore and a large number of relatives and friends attended.

DIRECTOR OF MINT SAYS NO MORE SILVER DOLLARS

Supply of Silver Bullion Bought Under Sherman Act Exhausted.

Portland, Ore., July 1.—"There never will be another silver dollar coined in this country," said George T. Roberts, Director of the United States Mint, in an interview here. Mr. Roberts is en route to Alaska and made this statement in answer to a question put to him by a representative of the Oregonian. "No, there will be no more new silver dollars turned out by the Government mint plants unless by some chance a 10 to 1 Congress should be elected, for the supply of silver bullion purchased under the Sherman act is exhausted."

Married at Springfield.

Miss Dawn Brumley and Samuel Jones, two well known young people of Madisonville, eloped to Springfield, Tenn., Monday morning where they were married. There was no objection to the marriage on the part of the families of either of the young people but they chose this method for the romance there was in it and in order that they might surprise their friends. The bride is a most popular young lady and has a wide circle of friends. Her husband is a well-known employee of the Jones Buggy Co., and has before him a most promising future.

Too Late Then.

Lee Turner, editor of the Fulton Leader, recently received a fine chicken, which he supposed it to be a token of appreciation from a discriminating reader, took it home and ate it for dinner. The following morning he received this letter: "Dear Editor: Yesterday I sent you a chicken in order to settle a dispute which has arisen here. It died with a new kind of disease. My wife thinks it had cholera while I think it had blind staggers. Please examine it and let me know what you think the trouble was."

HIRAM AT THE FAIR.

Yes, I seen the Iggyrotys runnin' savage at the fair, And they eat a brindle bull purp in a sort o' dagout there; Don't see how they ever done it—second natur', I suppose—Guess their appetites is bigger than their whole supply o' clo's. Say! You orter seen them varmint sailin' 'round among us folks, Dressed in nuthin' but tattoo marks and some Filippino jokes; Hate to come back home and tattle.

But, my sakes! My team of cattle Wears more duds than Iggyrotys—anyhow, they hev their yokes.

Must be fine, though, in summer, When the mercury is high, Jes' to be an Iggyrot underneath a blazin' sky—

Jes' to hev a little vulture where the whole dern bunch can roam Free from any disappoinment, 't it the laundry don't come home.

When us Yankee folks is sweatin' And our collars writin' down, And the wimulus folks is trettin' 'bout the latest style o' gown,

All them pesky Iggyrotys, Free o' pantsies, free o' coatsies, Frisk around and lets the sunbams monkey with their hidees o' brown

Some folks calls 'em heathen critters, some folks pities 'em, I guess, But I've sort o' got a notion that they knows jes' how to dress;

When I seen 'em in their dances I was thinkin' of the way, That I hed to primp and dress fer that Chicago Bal Powdery!

I remembered how I hustled fer an hour, er maybe more,

Till my back and eyes were achin' and my arms were mighty sore; Let the Yankees do their starlin'—Iggyrotys, you'll be wearin' Jes' as much as us, I reckon, when we strike the other shore!

COMPOSER OF "DIXIE"

Dan Emmett Buried by Elks.—Band Played the Tune.

Mount Vernon, O., July 1.—The funeral of Dan Emmett, the composer of "Dixie," was held here this afternoon under the auspices of the local Elk Lodge. Mr. Emmett was not a member of the Elks, but a special dispensation was granted by District Deputy J. L. Murray, of Cleveland, giving authority to the local lodge to conduct the funeral. Scores of well-known theatrical men were present, including Al. G. Field, who acted in the capacity of Equiré at the funeral. The funeral was held at St. Paris Episcopal church, which was crowded with people. The band rendered "Dixie," while the body lay in state at the residence from 9 to 1 o'clock and "Dixie" was also played as the body was consigned to the tomb. Hundreds viewed the body. Members of the Elk Lodge acted as pallbearers.

A SURPRISE

Was the Wedding of Davis Buchanan and Miss Katie Nelson.

The Paducah News-Democrat of last Thursday has the following:

"The marriage of Miss Katie Nelson to Mr. Davis Buchanan took place at 10:30 this morning at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Nelson, of 1111 Jefferson street, in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few close friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Perryman, pastor of the First Baptist church.

"The bride looked extremely pretty in a gown of gray crepe de chine. There were no attendants. After the ceremony the couple left for Madisonville, Ky., to visit Mr. Buchanan's parents."

The wedding was a complete surprise to the relatives and friends of the groom in Earlington. Mr. Buchanan is a son of Mr. J. S. Buchanan, of Madisonville, and is now a business man of Paducah.

CAPTURED WILD DOG

Near Onton.—Had Been in Green River Bottoms Over Two Years.

Dave Poe, of the Onton country, last week captured, what is said to have been a wild dog.

Report says that this dog was the property of some parties of Owensboro who were in the Green River country, near Onton on a hunting tour about two years ago. During their stay the dog was, in some way, so frightened that he made his flight into the woods and all available means were exhausted in trying to induce his dogship to return to his owners, but to no effect.

Since then the canine has roamed wild, through the forests, subsisting upon pigs, rabbits and other things which came in his way.

Many attempts have been made to capture the dog, but without success, until Mr. Poe built a pen, set a trap door and baited for the animal.

It is said that when first caught the wild creature, would growl, snap and bark in a terrible manner when any one approached the trap, but in a few days, he had become so docile that he would take food from the hands of a person.

JOIN "KENTUCKY TRAIN."

Earlington Knights Templar Will Go With Lebanon Commandery to Conclave.

Tuesday was a day of decision with the Earlington Knights Templar who are facing towards San Francisco and the Triennial Conclave. Mr. R. T. G. Matthews, of the Missouri Pacific railroad was here and booked the party for the "Kentucky Special" that will be run by Marion Commandery of Lebanon, Ky. Half of a Pullman sleeper was set aside for the Earlington party and the space was definitely reserved for about fourteen persons who will certainly take the trip. Others who could not be seen will join the party later and the St. Bernard Commandery No. 29 will be handsomely represented at the Conclave. Those for whom berths have been reserved are:

H. C. Bondland and Mrs. Margaret Bourland, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McGary, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. X. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Robinson, Mrs. S. E. Stevens, Dr. C. B. Johnson, E. J. Phillips.

MAMMOTH MASS MEETING.

Tremendous Gathering Sunday Night at the Tabernacle—A Great Rally.

In the Tabernacle at Madisonville next Sunday night, July 10, at 8 o'clock, there will be a grand rally. All the churches of the town giving up their regular evening service.

Music by a special choir, two or three brief address and announcements regarding the beautiful new Young Men's Building to be erected will be the program.

There will be no financial solicitation. Everybody is invited to be present. Don't fail to come.

Strange but True.

Truly, the path of the country newspaper man is exceedingly rocky and many are they who err therein. The local man may write 10,000 nice complimentary notices about the "beautiful" entertainment of Mrs. So and So and "Miss So and So," and though he gets 9,999 of them just right he will never hear a word of praise, but let him get one of them wrong and he gets a raking that would astonish a galley slave.—Danville News.

KILLED HIS FATHER

Mack Hern, of Hopkinsville, Fires at His Father With Fatal Effect.

TROUBLE OVER FAMILY MATTERS.

Mr. H. D. Brame, an eye witness to the killing of James Hern at Hopkinsville Monday, gave the following version to The Bee:

The awful tragedy occurred at Long's saloon on East Ninth street where the dead man and his younger son, Hayden, were employed as bar tenders. The victim was about sixty years old and was formerly on the police force. His son, Mack, is 26 years old and is a boiler maker in the employ of the L. C. R. R. at Paducah, and had come to Hopkinsville to spend the Fourth bringing a woman with him. His father objected to this girl being introduced to his daughter and upbraided his son for bringing her to the house. The son in turn reproached his father for the ill treatment of his first wife, the boy's mother who had divorced about twelve months. High words followed and the elder Hern slapped the boy in the face and he left the saloon in a great rage. About 8 o'clock Monday night Mr. Brame and a friend entered Long's place of business and ordered a beer. While they were waiting for Hayden Hern to draw it the screen door was pushed partly open and Mack Hern said to his brother "have you drawn the bucket of beer for me?" Hayden replied "no I have not had time." at the same time making motions with his hand for his brother not to come in. Mack Hern paid no attention to the sign but pushed the door open and said "father, you have treated me wrong?" fired the fatal shot. The elder Hern died in about an hour.

Mack Hern was placed under arrest. He claims to have killed his father in self defense and that his life had been threatened a short time before the tragedy took place.

Had a Managerie of Her Own.

A story is told of a Cherokee woman who has married six times and never got out of the animal line. When she was a girl she was known as Miss Mollie Panther. She married an Indian named Coon, and when this gentleman was transferred to the happy hunting grounds, she became Mrs. Fox. The Fox did not last always, and when he entered the last chase, the widow married a mild, placid man named Mule, who never had any kick coming till he harnessed up to draw his load across the Grand Divide. After a period of mourning the widow entered the realms of matrimonial bliss and became Mrs. Wolf, and when his scalp went to the Great Father, along with his corporeal remains, she became the wife of a man named Tiger, and when Mr. Tiger changed his stripes for a pretty white robe in the Great Beyond, she selected another husband by the name of Rabbit.

The shot was fired by W. O. Vaughn, a sixteen-year-old boy, who had been out on a night's carousal, and who was firing two revolvers promiscuously as he passed the camp in a carriage with his party. The boy admits that he fired the shot but says he had no idea that it was going in the direction of the tent occupied by Mr. Suter. He was arrested on a charge of murder, but the detective department accepts the story of accidental death.

Mr. Robert Staver, of Evansville, spent the Fourth of July with Mr. and Mrs. Egloff returning Monday night.

It rained some the glorious Fourth, consequently the various pleasures given on that day were not howling successes, as was fondly anticipated by the different lodges, churches and others.

Some small boy, with a stone bruise on his heel and an unlimited amount of gall, persists in leaving the St. Bernard pasture gate open and letting other people's cows out in addition to his own. This causes a great deal of unnecessary trouble, as some of the cows do not come up for two or three days.

Last Monday Charles Trahern and Jesse Phillips decided to celebrate the Fourth by taking a row on the lake. One of the boys decided to get out on a large stump in the lake and rest while the other continued his passage. While thus separated the heavy downpour of rain came and the man in the boat being nearer the shore concluded to take refuge under a sheltering tree and left the man on the stump to keep dry. But the thick foliage was insufficient to turn the big shing drops that came pattering down. The result was both boys came home rather damp.

Weak Hearts are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach cannot do its duty, and the result is a weak heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every part of the body. Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

No False Claims.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure the dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the early stages of the disease, and bring comfort and relief in the worst cases. Making Money

By Getting "More Goods for the Same Money—Same Goods for Less Money."

WHEN We come right down to dollars and cents, very few people are in business for health. The BIG STORE is no sanitarium—it is a store chock full of up-to-date merchandise; conducted in a fair and square manner; founded on the motto of "Being Square if it makes us Round Shouldered."

We are calling special attention this week to our showing of thin, sheer dress fabrics.

POPULISTS NAME THOS. E. WATSON

Ticket Placed in Nomination By the Popular National Convention at Springfield, Ill.

FOR PRESIDENT, THOMAS E. WATSON;
VICE-PRESIDENT, THOS. H. TIBBLES.

As Unsuccessful Attempts Were Made to Expunge the Name of Watson from the Ticket
Until after the St. Louis Convention
Had Nominated "The Platform" as Adopted.

Springfield, Ill., July 6.—Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, for president, and Thomas H. Tibbles, of Nebraska, for vice-president, were the ticket nominated by the populist convention. The names of William V. Allen, of Nebraska, and W. Williams, of Indiana, were placed before the convention for president, but before the list of states had been completed in the roll call, their names were withdrawn, and Watson was nominated by acclamation. Former Senator Allen made good his word that he would not enter into any scramble for the nomination, and while the nominations were being made he instructed the chairman of the Nebraska delegation to say that his name must not go before the convention. In the face of this, however, he received over forty votes.

Whether Mr. Watson will accept the nomination or not, no one in the convention seemed to know, and in efforts to secure some definite information from Watson's friends failed. Watson was quoted as saying that if the democrats at St. Louis nominated him he would support him for president.

J. A. Mallett, of Texas, was chosen permanent chairman. The committee on credentials wrangled many hours on the question as to whether or not a man should be permitted to cast the vote of an entire state, when a state only had one delegate in the convention, and being unable to arrive, it was referred to the convention, where it was debated until past the noon hour. The delegates favoring a full vote carried the day. The platform adopted is brief, and is practically a reaffirmation of the Omaha platform of 1892. It was adopted as reported by the committee without a dissenting voice.

Former Congressman F. P. Radgely, of Kansas, attempted to secure the postponement of the nomination of a ticket until after the St. Louis convention, but the convention promptly tabled his resolution.

It required the entire day Tuesday in which to adopt the short platform and nominate the ticket.

The Platform.
"The people of the United States are entitled to government and should never be delegated to corporations or individuals. The constitution gives to the people the power to make laws and regulate its value. No therefore should any law be made which shall be issued by the government in such quantities as shall make it a debt redeemable in other money. We demand that the power of the banks be established by the government for the safe deposit of the savings of the people."

"We believe in the right of labor to organize for the benefit and protection of those who toil, and in the rights of the people's party to preserve this right inviolate. Capitalism, which has no right to deny to labor the privilege which it claims, is a crime. We feel that intelligent organization of labor is essential to the standard of workmanship, promotes the efficiency, intelligence and the wage worker. We believe with Abraham Lincoln, that labor is the basis of all that is good, and that its companion, and not its slave, but its companion, and we stand for the right of labor to organize and justice which will protect industrial property and the balance of the principles of voluntary association."

"We favor the enactment of legislation looking to the improvement of conditions for wage earners. The right of child labor, the suppression of sweatshops and of contract labor, the restriction with free labor and the exclusion from American shores of foreign labor."

"We favor the shorter work day and declare that if eight hours constitutes a day's labor in government service, that eight hours should constitute a day's labor in factories, workshops and mines. As a means of placing all public questions directly under the control of the people, we demand that the legal provision be made under which the people may exercise the initiative, referendum and proposition of representation and direct vote for all public officers with the right of recall."

"Land, including all the natural sources of wealth, is a heritage of all the people, and should not be monopolized for speculative purposes, and the ownership of it should be prohibited. We demand the original interpretation of the constitution and a fair and impartial enforcement of the law under it, and denounce government by injunction and by the use of force to prevent the right of trial by jury."

"We demand the abolition of discrimination and monopoly the government should own and control the railroad and these public utilities, which in their hands are monopolized to perfect the postal service. The government should own the telegraph and the general telegraph and telephone system and provide a parcel delivery service."

"As to those trusts and monopolies which are not public utilities, we demand that those special privileges which they now enjoy, and which alone enable them to exist should be immediately withdrawn."

"Corporations being the creatures of government should be subject to all governmental regulations and control as well as adequately protect the public. We demand the taxation of monopoly privileges while they remain in the hands to the extent of the value of the privilege granted."

"We demand that congress shall enact a general law uniformly regulating the power and duties of all incorporated companies doing interstate business."

Jefferson City, Mo., July 6.—A wholesale jail delivery occurred here Monday morning, six prisoners making their escape by sawing their way to freedom through the iron bars and cage.

Size of an Orchard.
(The American Cultivator.)

It is almost as difficult and expensive to care for five acres of orchard trees as it is for ten, and it is misplaced energy to attempt to plant orchards too small to occupy one's full time.

As a good deal of modern orcharding expense consists in the labor of spraying and fighting insects it will pay better to have an orchard large enough to warrant one in purchasing the necessary apparatus to spray properly.

A large orchard also tends to protect itself against the winds, and in winter and summer there may be a considerable saving from this. The trees on the outside nearly always produce less than those inside.

If one is going to have an apple or other fruit orchard it is just as well to have a fine one as an ordinary kind. The latter will not cost much profitable, while the former will not.

Plant trees of well-known marketable varieties and get good specimens from reliable dealers. Spray them every season and protect them from pests of all kinds. Do not let them injure themselves by bearing heavily the first few years. Pick off the blossoms or fruit, so that no over-branch will be strained. Over-production at an early age is deadly to a good tree.

Every year set out new trees in the place of any that may be injured or lost. Do not have a ragged orchard, but try to make every tree come up to the standard.

This can be easily done if one has ordinary intelligence and will give the time to the work. Use only hoed crops at first in the apple orchard. Wheat, oats and timothy are best for the trees. They take the much from the soil, but hoed crops, seedling the land to clover or cowpeas every few years will produce excellent results.

Raising Hogs.

If you raise hogs you must first have a good place for them. Your farm must be adapted to hog raising and you must like the animals.

When I start them in the shed made from rough lumber, five by six feet. The front of the shed I always build five feet high and the back only two feet high. I also make a small lot in front of each shed for the pigs to exercise in and take their sunbaths. To this I enclose I make a small door so that it is easy to let them out in the pasture. These sheds are always built in the fields I expect to pasture, so it is little trouble to take care of the pigs. I generally have my pigs come April and keep them shut up until they are at least ten days old, and then turn them out in the pasture.

I generally have about thirty Poland-China sows to raise pigs from each year; I think this breed feeds smoother than any other. While shut up I feed corn and give them pure water direct from a bucket. I always found this the quickest and cleanest way. One bucket of water is sufficient for six sows. By so feeding them there is no danger of their rooting the through over on the pigs. I always when the pigs are about ten weeks old I sort out fifty of the best of them to keep and sell the rest and generally realize about $2 apiece for them. I feed and sell about fifty head of hogs each year and pick up pigs as well grown, broad and deep as I can, with quality and finish. These will get fat easily and grow rapidly. I pick them out regardless of sex, for a good barrow is more profitable than a poor sow. I feed these pigs on corn and pick up pigs as well as one bushel of wheat or rye, scattered on the ground, at the same time allowing them to run on clover until corn will do to husk, when I start in the new corn. In December I breed the sows for another year.

DON'T WAIT TILL

AFTER THE FUNERAL.

Parents of Earlinton boys ought individually to know that their boys are not among those who practice at jumping upon moving trains. The temptation to do this sort of athletic stunt is strong with the active, growing boy and he will continue to risk life and limb for the applause of his playmates if he is not made to realize the great hazard he is taking. The railroad officials and the town authorities are alive to the danger and if parents cannot or will not control their boys they will be made to feel the law's power and punishment. The Bee urges that parents take this matter in hand and use all their influence with the boys to stop this exceedingly dangerous practice of train jumping. It will be to late after the funeral.

Geo. T. Roberts, Director of the United States Mint, says there will be no more silver dollars coined, because the silver bullion purchased under the Sherman act is exhausted. There are plenty silver dollars coined and stocked up in treasury and bank vault to cut holes in the pockets of future generations, and if we at any time get out of reach of these well-stored silver vaults we can manage to get along with Uncle Sam's bank notes.

The heavens mixed so much water with the 4th of July booze on Monday, in Kentucky and other states, as to materially curtail the mortality list of that great day. There were casualties enough but the rain saved the day.

Urey Woodson, of Owensboro, Elected National Committeeman From Kentucky.

St. Louis, July 5.—Urey Woodson, of Owensboro, was elected National Committeeman from Kentucky by the delegation from that State over W. B. Halldeman by a vote of 14 to 11 at a meeting held tonight in the Railway Exchange building, headquarters for the Kentuckians.

A resolution instructing that the delegation cast its twenty-six votes for Judge Alton B. Parker for the Presidential nomination so long as it appears that he can acquire the two-thirds majority necessary for nomination, was adopted by a vote of 23 to 2.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine."

This remedy is for sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington, Ky. T. Robinson, Martinsville, Ga.; John N. Taylor, Earlington.

MINING NOTES.

The U. S. Geological Survey field work for 1904 will cover investigations in many states covering several lines of work in wide general areas. Several States will be included in an investigation to be made by Mr. H. Foster Bain of the lead and zinc deposits of the Mississippi Valley. He will make a special study of their genesis, geologic occurrence, and economic importance. His specific task is to examine the lead and zinc deposits of the upper Mississippi district in Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin and to prepare a preliminary report upon this district. In addition he will examine certain copper deposits in Shannon county, Missouri, associated lead and zinc ores in St. Genevieve county and in the Mine La Motte district, and the St. Clair and Granby mines in southwestern Missouri. He is also directed to reexamine the more important lead and zinc mines of the Western Kentucky district and to make a reconnaissance examination of the lead and zinc district of the Appalachian Valley in Virginia and Tennessee. Mr. E. O. Ulrich, who is directed to investigate the Silurian and Ordovician paleontology and stratigraphy of the northern Mississippi valley, will cooperate with Mr. Bain in the study of the lead and zinc deposits of that district.

Baltimore, Md., June 30.—At the beginning of the last half of the nineteenth century there were only two States south of the Ohio river and Mason and Dixon's line in which coal was being mined to any great extent. These two states were Maryland and Virginia, the latter being the first State in this country in which bituminous coal had been mined, and both States producing a little more than 325,000 tons in 1851, when the total output in the country was 8,141,525 tons, of which nearly 5,500,000 tons were anthracite. In 1903 the total output in the South by tons was as follows:

West Virginia.....	20,882,524
Alabama.....	11,700,753
Kentucky.....	7,150,000
Tennessee.....	4,750,000
Maryland.....	4,454,385
Virginia.....	3,500,000
Arkansas.....	3,000,000
Texas.....	800,000
Georgia.....	400,000
North Carolina.....	25,000
Total.....	62,682,682

In the 52 years, with a production of bituminous coal in the whole country rising from 3,000,000 tons to 279,733,000 tons, the production in the South had increased from 325,000 tons to 62,682,682 tons.

Will Whitford was in Madisonville Monday on business.

Mr. Abe Martin, of Mortons, visited friends here Sunday.

James Cloren, of St. Charles, visited his parents in this city Sunday.

Mr. Rob. Gordon, of this place, was in Madisonville Monday.

Steve Aaron, night watchman at the Shamrock mine, was here Tuesday visiting friends.

It is said that the shaft now being sunk at Henderson will be bored to a depth of 800 to 1,000 feet with expectation of reaching a grade of that is said to be similar to the best grades of Pennsylvania coal. In but few places in Kentucky have the lower measures been reached and therefore a great deal of interest will be felt in the developments resulting from these borings. If the lower measures prove satisfactory there is a strong possibility of a large mine being located in the vicinity of Henderson. Should this become a reality as 90 per cent of the money spent in coal mining is for labor it will be readily seen that this will be a great factor in booming the city.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

Thomas Walsh went to St. Louis Monday.

Fireman McKeroy of the St. Louis Division has resigned.

F. C. Walsh, machinist, has resigned his position at Howell. Fireman P. J. Dillon is off on a vacation.

J. A. Purcell and family of Howell are at the World's Fair. Harry Connott was at Guthrie on the first.

Paul Fedri and son of Howell have gone to St. Louis.

J. C. Scobee has returned from a short vacation in Kentucky for his health.

Clyde Shirley, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., has secured a position in the car department at Howell.

Train No. 68 on the St. Louis Division was delayed about half an hour Sunday on account of two mules and a horse having gotten fastened in a trestle near Carmi, Ill. Engineer Henry Laswell saw them in time to stop the train. The mules easily jumped out and ran away, but the horse had its legs broken and struggled so that it was impossible to get out of the trap into which it had fallen without killing it.

Engineer George Lockwood is back again after a stay at Hot Springs, Ark., for his health.

John D. Rockefeller says "The poorest man in the world is the man who has nothing but money." Now, what else has Rockefeller?

Fireman T. P. Key while sprinkling water on coal on engine 965, train 67, near Guthrie on the 2nd, had the hose to get away from him, so that hot water was squirted on his leg, scalding it pretty badly. He was obliged to go to his home in Nashville on the account of it.

Train 51 was considerably delayed the other day on account of steam chest bursting on the left side of engine 250.

The L. & N. did a good business into Evansville the Fourth. What is morally wrong cannot be politically right.

The L. & N. has made arrangement with the St. Louis Terminal Railroad Association to pull its trains over the bridge with their own engines to Union Station, the arrangement heretofore having been that the Terminal people handled all trains over the bridge themselves.

Of 700 ten-dollar marked bills paid on a Saturday night by a Massachusetts factory to its hands, 400 by the following Tuesday were deposited in the bank by the saloon keepers.

William A. Weymeir, one of the Howell machinists, died at his home in Evansville at 8 o'clock a. m. July 4th with heart trouble.

While in a drunken convulsion, Patrick Moran, of Moundsville, W. Va., bit off his tongue and threw it in the fire. The report adds that he almost bled to death before a physician could reach him.

Harry E. Dodge, from the chief Draftsman's office at Louisville, was on the division this week.

Of interest to merchants and railroad men is the new garnishee bill which was passed by the last Legislature and which became a law last week without the Governor's signature. The bill repeals the provision of Section 1701, Kentucky Statutes, which with reference to exemptions from attachments reads: "Provided, that the exemption of fifty dollars shall not apply to debts contracted for food, fuel, medicine, raiment or house rent for the family." Under the old law the wages of a person earning less than $50 a month, were not subject to attachment unless for food, raiment, fuel, etc. Now the exemption for debts of that character is the same as the exemption for any other debts. Under the present law unless a person earns more than $50 a month his wages cannot be attached for any debt.

Railroad men are speaking of Y. Van de Berg as a possibility for the place of first vice president of the Louisville and Nashville railroad says the Courier-Journal. Mr. Van de Berg accepted service with the road soon after Milton H. Smith became president, and was with it until four years ago. He filled every position from traveling freight agent to first vice president, with the exception of second vice president. He was one of the men who built up the Pensacola port for the road. Mr. Van de Berg went from Louisville to Baltimore to engage in a business venture, and on June 1 accepted a place in the traffic department of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. He is a protégé of Mr. Smith, and holds a strong place in the estimation of the foreign stockholders.

JIM CROW LAW

In Effect in Maryland Railroad and Steamboat Companies Prepared for Change.

A special from Baltimore says: The law passed at the last session of the Legislature requiring separate compartments for white and colored passengers to railway and steamboats, known as the "Jim Crow" law, is in effect. It is held that the law does not apply to through express trains and will be enforced only on trains doing a strictly local business in the state and on steamboats plying exclusively on state waters. All the railroad companies whose lines pass through the state announce that they are prepared to obey the law, having equipped coaches for this purpose. The cars are partitioned off, one-half being for colored passengers and the other half for whites. The compartments are designated on the outside with cards on which are the words "white" or "colored."

Steamboat companies, whose vessels ply the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries have made similar preparations to comply with the law, having reserved separate coaches on the decks and in the saloons and separate berths for colored passengers.

Piles upon piles of people have the Piles, and DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures them. There are many different kinds of Piles, but if you get the genuine and original Witch Hazel Salve made by E. C. Base Ball Riot—Umpire Beat.

In the seventh inning of the game of base ball Saturday between Henderson and Paducah, teams of the "Kitty" league, with the score 2 to 0 in favor of Paducah, Umpire Settley sent Gerrard, of the Paducah team, to the bench for protesting against one of his decisions. Fletcher Land of Paducah struck Settley in the jaw, knocking him down. A riot was imminent, but the police arrested Land. Settley then gave the game to Paducah, 9-0. Land was fined $25 in court and President Thompson fined him $25, and suspended him indefinitely.

FIRST WHEAT SALE

In Owensboro Market Brings 85 Cents. Farmers Holding for Dollar Wheat.

The wheat market has opened up at 85 cents, says the Messenger. Two purchases were made Tuesday. Others are anxious to buy, but the farmers are disinclined to sell. The tendency to hold on for a dollar is strong among the farmers, but the millers think the price will drop instead of raise. Corn is also up, but hay is lower than last year. The deliveries of wheat will begin early next week.

C. W. Bransford bought the first crop. He paid 85 cents for it and found from the sample submitted that it graded 62 pounds to the bushel. This crop belongs to the Robinson brothers, whose farm is just above the city.

The first purchases of the season were made last Friday at Gilbert's mill. It is the crop of Frank Boehman and is ready for delivery today, but Mr. Gilbert advised that the delivery be not made until next week. Mr. Boehman was also the first to sell last year. The quality is unusually good, the crop being noted for its short straw and long head. Last year there was largely straw and short head.

Mr. Broeker has bought no wheat yet, however, like the other millers, is ready to offer 85 cents for wheat that will be delivered on or before July 10. The belief at this mill is that wheat will soon drop below the present price.

The Star mills have bought none yet. Mr. Field said to the Messenger that the farmers were disinclined to sell yet. He has no old wheat on hand, but has a supply of flour to last for ten days. He, too, is willing to pay 85 cents for deliveries made before July 10. He says the first few days of the market will be the best, because the big mills are out of wheat, and are offering the highest possible price to get the farmers to rush in with the crop.

O'Bryan & Robinson, the successors to Hoagland, Hardy & Co., whose place of business is on the river front, has already bought 10,000 bushels of wheat. The price paid is 85 cents, the highest offered here up to the present. Of this purchase 5,000 bushels are to be delivered at Owensboro, 3,000 at Griffith and 2,000 at Maceo. The price at which wheat was opened last year was 70 cents. In this connection it may be stated that a sample brought to this firm from the Maceo neighborhood by Mr. Robinson on Friday is one of the best ever shown in Owensboro. It grades 63, and as the usual grading of No. 2 wheat is 58, it will be seen that this is unusually fine.

Recovered Horse and Buggy.

Mr. Wooten, of Madisonville, recovered the horse and buggy that was stolen from his stable several days ago. The horse was hired to a man giving him the name as E. C. Johnson who was to be off three or four days billing a show in country towns. After the time limit had expired the owner of the horse began to inquire and found that the buggy and horse had been sold for $50.00 at Fort Branch near Henderson. Mr. Wooten went to Fort Branch and returned with his property last Friday. The man escaped.

LARGE TREE

Found in Crockett, Texas, by Oil Drillers.

The trunk of a large tree has been encountered at a depth of 1,000 feet by the oil drillers at Crockett, Texas. Large pieces of perfectly preserved bark and wood of clear grain have been brought to the surface. The wood is of very hard texture, and the tree is estimated to have been between two and three feet in diameter.

CHIEF DISPATCHER

Hereafter Has Full Authority in Issuing Train Orders.

Orders have been issued from the superintendent's office in Louisville giving the signing of train orders and distribution of cars over the Louisville and Paducah division of the I. O. R. R. to the chief dispatchers instead of trainmasters. The issuing of train orders is done by dispatchers under the direction of the chief dispatcher, but over the signature of the trainmaster. It is all under his supervision, however, but on account of close association with the actual work, the chief dispatcher is now assigned this duty, simply for convenience.

On the Evansville division the assistant superintendent will have authority, no chief dispatcher being located there.

Killed in Card Game.

Bowling Green, Ky., July 5.—Near Hadley, this county, Fred Scott shot and instantly killed Charley Keys, emptying both barrels of a shotgun into him. They were with a party who were spending the day in the woods drinking beer and playing cards, and the killing was caused by a dispute over a card game. Both men were employed at Caden's stone quarry. Scott has not been arrested.

Badly Injured.

Pikeville, Ky., July 5.—While working on the stone bridge at the mouth of Hurricane creek, three men, Willie Marrs, James Damron and Willie Hall, were all badly injured. It seems that a tram car carrying stone from the quarry to the bridge was in charge of a negro who let it get away from him. At any rate, the car ran down the track to the bank, left the rails, and turned over down an eighteen-foot embankment and caught the men. Marrs is in a worse condition than his comrades. His right leg is broken and his body was badly crushed by a stone weighing at least 1,500 pounds rolling on him.

The Last of the Murrells.

Owingsville, Ky., July 5.—A few days ago, when John Murrell and Blane Puckett met in front of the postoffice at the village of Iron Mountain in the mountains of Estill county, Kentucky, and with a shotgun and revolver shot the life out of each other, there perished in Murrell the last surviving relative, it is said, of John A. Murrell, the noted outlaw.

The little daughter of City Marshal Benton, who was taken very seriously ill last week while on a visit to relatives in Allen'sville is reported to be much better.

John Herb, of St. Louis, who was badly injured by striking his head on a bridge while on his engine some time ago has recovered sufficiently to be able to visit friends and relatives here. He was confined to the hospital several days and still wears a large bump on his head.

The holders of the following tickets won the prizes offered by the A. O. U. W. and W. O. W. at the 4th of July picnic Monday: No. 1083 won the handsome table, given by the Porter Installation Co., and No. 892 won the fine buggy given by Foley.

A new roof is being put on the shed in front of the Robison block.

The St. Bernard Mining Company's brick store building is being newly painted this week by Brane Bros. & Bush, of Hopkinsville.

WHY DON'T YOU ADVERTISE?

BLUE G. HARD.

When business is dull and times are hard
 That is the time to get wise,
 Don't sit around and knock all day;
 Why don't you advertise?
 If your goods won't sell and trade is slack,
 Two things all merchants despise,
 Don't get in the dumps and have the blues;
 Why don't you advertise?
 There's lots of good trade you might secure,
 If you had enough enterprise.
 Why don't you get out of the same old rut—
 Why don't you advertise?
 You nail a few boards on fences and trees,
 Where no one to read them tries—
 You are wasting your money, as well as your time;
 Why don't you advertise?
 There is only one way to make things hum,
 Anyone can do it who tries;
 Go to THE BEE office the first of the week

The Influence of Parents.

Or all the teaching in the world ninety-nine hundredths at least is done by fathers and mothers. Every child learns more in the way of actual facts from the day of its birth until the end of its bronchitis year than it can possibly learn in all the rest of its life put together.

During these first hours and years of life the child learns to walk, to talk, and what is far more important, learns the beginning of self-control. During the first years the child puts itself in touch with the world into which it is born, and in these early years the parents, and the mothers especially, are the teachers. They start the operation of the mind, giving it its first bent, however able the teachers of "ure may be, however con-and learned, in the great "cases the child's future, or failure, depends upon the influence of the ber.

Rev. Moore of the Christian church was at his regular appointment but instead of preaching at his 11 o'clock appointment had a number of talks by various members. A number of excellent remarks were made, but hope we will not be pardoned if we mention Miss Helen Cox as having delivered one of the finest addresses we ever had the pleasure of listening to.

A lively team from Providence started to run with a buggy Sunday night. They soon came loose from the buggy and ran through Nebo at their highest speed. They met Mr. Bob Walker, our liverman, about two miles from Nebo. One of the horses struck against the shaft of Mr. Walker's buggy running it into his breast killing him almost instantly. We learn that the team belonged to Mr. E. G. Blahop.

Our usually quiet town was aroused to a high pitch of excitement Monday morning when, without any previous notice, an automobile suddenly appeared on our streets, but where it came from and where it was going is unknown to your correspondent. It disappeared in the direction of Madisonville with Chis Hoffman in hot pursuit.

We attended the Sunday school convention which met at Manlius, Kentucky, last week. The people of Manlius never do anything by halves.

While sauntering around a day or two ago we strayed into the back yard and found everything booming. They will have brick ready for delivery by the 20th of July. The gentlemen who have the thing in charge deserve great credit, for it was badly needed in this locality.

We miss one of our loafers. Where he has gone we know not—but we miss him.

Mr. Morse arrived Friday to take charge of the section, vice Mr. Witherspoon.

The bank and postoffice closed doors on the Fourth; otherwise things were about as usual.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all liver remedies for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and the insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 50¢; regular bottles, 75¢. At all druggists.

Recreate Your Bowels With Castor Oil. Castor Oil is the only cathartic for the bowels. It is the only one that is safe and sure. It is the only one that is pleasant to take. It is the only one that is effective. It is the only one that is cheap. It is the only one that is reliable. It is the only one that is pure. It is the only one that is clean. It is the only one that is healthy. It is the only one that is strong. It is the only one that is brave. It is the only one that is true. It is the only one that is honest. It is the only one that is just. It is the only one that is fair. It is the only one that is kind. It is the only one that is gentle. It is the only one that is soft. It is the only one that is sweet. It is the only one that is good. It is the only one that is great. It is the only one that is perfect. It is the only one that is complete. Dr. C. M. Smith, of Corrydon, Ky., is the happy or unhappy owner of a Shetland mule. This monster specimen of the black foot has been struck a few days ago and the doctor was much chagrined upon going to the stable, to find that his new property was a mule. The little Shetland was 20 inches high and well made, and when grown, it will look like a large Newfoundland dog but not so heavy set.

Mt. Vernon has a curfew law for the benefit of the cows, which says that no cow is allowed to be promading the streets of that place between the hours of 8 a. m. and 8 p. m., unless accompanied by her lawful owner.

Over in Madison county the other day a cow was killed by lightning. After the storm a farmer came along and seeing the dead cow went to the house of her owner and said: "Jim, your black cow has been struck and killed." "Is that so?" answered the cow's owner. That's the best cow I had. She was worth $100 at least. What train struck her?" "She wasn't hit by a train," said the first farmer. "Lightning struck her." Oh, ho—said the owner of the cow. "I thought it was a train. Well, I don't care much. That old cow wasn't worth over $10 anyway."
